Verse 2:

My Nissan Extera, man it was so sweet,
Its oversized tires tore up Winnipeg's street,
I used to be driving, but now it's the back seat.
'Cause I don't have a car.

Chorus 2:

No I don't have a car,
I don't have a car.
My ring I gave away,
And I'll get it back one day.
But I still don't have a car.

Verse 3:

I came to Toronto 'cause love left me,
I came to Toronto to follow my honey.
I came to Toronto, so now I'm happy.
But I still don't have a car.

Chorus 3:

No I don't have a car,
I don't have a car.
Minivans can still be cool,
When you drive five kids to school.
Maybe I don't want a car.
